

SSO Membership

Cancer surgeons from around the world have joined the SSO community to advance their knowledge and remain on the leading edge of research and science. Being an SSO member signals your commitment to the highest standards for surgical oncology. It also delivers benefits that keep you growing, advancing and attaining greater satisfaction with your career.

SSO members gain valuable support to help them strengthen their capabilities and professionalism throughout their careers. Specifically, SSO enables members to:

- Stay on the leading edge of research and practice
- Integrate the highest quality standards into their practices
- Connect and collaborate with peers and experts worldwide
- Enhance their professional reputation
- Gain first-hand support for the challenges members face every day
- Deliver the best surgical cancer care to patients
- Hear and reflect on different perspectives to issues and controversies
- Contribute toward advancing the profession
- Guide and mentor younger cancer surgeons
- Effectively participate and lead care delivered by multidisciplinary teams
- Gain insight into practice-changing trends and innovations
- Develop lifelong professional relationships with colleagues

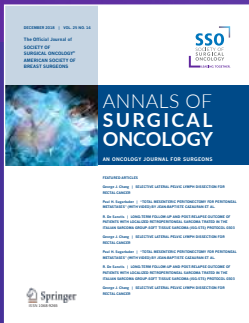

MEMBERSHIP

Join SSO and Reap the Rewards of Our Brand

SSO membership is open to cancer surgeons and scientists in the U.S. and internationally; non-physician clinicians who are significantly involved in cancer care; surgical trainees, residents, and medical students.

Membership benefits include:

Online subscription to SSO's peer-reviewed monthly scientific journal, Annals of Surgical Oncology

Listing in SSO's "Find a Surgeon" Directory

Reduced registration fees for SSO's Annual Cancer Symposium

Listing in the Society's online Membership Directory

Access to "My SSO Community" for peer-to-peer collaboration

Complimentary access to ExpertED@SSO with a wide array of online educational resources

The ability to earn complimentary CME credit through the Annals CME

The privilege of submitting abstracts for our Annual Cancer Symposium

Join the Society that helps cancer surgeons worldwide improve their patient outcomes and adopt the values of the new SSO brand. Just go to surgonc.org/join.

JOIN TODAY